

Service

We serve our local communities through a variety of service projects and public awareness programs. Women of Today chapters support projects such as:

- ◆ Senior Citizens Activities
- ◆ Community Events
- ◆ Women's Concerns
- ◆ Special Youth Activities

Fundraising and educational events for medical health foundations, such as:

- ◆ March of Dimes
- ◆ Kidney Foundation
- ◆ Lupus Foundation

*“May we leave the world a better place because we lived and served within it.”
from the Women of Today creed*

Growth

Personal enrichment programs are designed to help our members develop skills to utilize in their personal and business lives. The following are examples of personal enrichment programs offered:

- ◆ Effective Speaking
- ◆ Effective Writing
- ◆ Time Management
- ◆ Leadership Team Building
- ◆ Stress Management
- ◆ Personality: Understanding
- ◆ Yourself and Others
- ◆ Communications

Opportunities exist for leadership training at all levels of Women of Today, from committee work and officer positions in the local chapter, to management and supervisory positions on the district and state levels.

Fellowship

We hold social events to encourage members to develop close friendships with women who share similar interests. These events include:

- ◆ Family Picnics
- ◆ Holiday Parties
- ◆ Progressive Dinners
- ◆ Pamper Yourself Events
- ◆ Family Bowling

If you share our desire to contribute to the growth and vitality of our communities; if you are concerned about the welfare of women and children in our society; if you have ideas to share; want to become more involved; or just want to make new friends, the Minnesota Women of Today invite you to become a member.

Founded in 1950, we are volunteers, at least 18 years of age, dedicated to leadership training and community service. The Minnesota Women of Today is affiliated with United States Women of Today.

Women of Today Mission Statement

The mission of the Minnesota Women of Today is to help women improve their own lives and the lives of the people in the communities around them. The organization shall be a place in which young women are actively encouraged to become involved and hold positions of leadership. The organization shall provide opportunities for members:

- A. To contribute to their communities by raising funds for worthy causes and by providing services or education to benefit community members.
- B. To develop and to foster skills and talents related to becoming successful individuals, interacting well with other people, and becoming capable leaders.
- C. To develop friendships and to find personal support within the organization.

Minnesota Women of Today Creed

We, the Women of Today, are service, growth and fellowship.
We believe that through us great lessons can be learned, worthy deeds performed, and a hand of fellowship extended to millions of women everywhere.
May we leave the world a better place because we lived and served within it.
